Poems

“Blessing of the Apaches”

Now you will feel no rain, for each of you will be shelter for the other. Now you will feel no cold, for each of you will be warmth to the other. Now there will be no loneliness, for each of you will be companion to the other. Now you are two persons, but there is only one life before you. May beauty surround you both in the journey ahead and through all of the years before you. Treat yourself and each other with respect, and remind yourselves often of what brought you together. Give the highest priority to the tenderness, gentleness and kindness that your love affair deserves.

“Two Hearts”

May these two hearts be united one to the other
Like flowers and its perfume, like flute and its melody
May they have many summers of sweet love and happiness. May they bring forth children and grandchildren. May they in the autumn of life
Ripen through service into the serenity of the spirit
And may they at the end of their days break all mortal bonds and encounter the great unknown with fearless hearts.

“Marriage is the Beginning”

Marriage is the beginning of the song of life
It is the bond that unites the strangeness of the past
With the brightness of the future
The link between the silence of the feelings of praise
With music that is set by night to be sung in the day
Marriage creates a happiness
That no other happiness can surpass
But that of the soul when she embraces God
It is the union of two souls in a strong love
For the abolishment of loneliness
It is the union of a golden ring in a chain
Whose beginning is a glance and whose ending is eternity
I see beauty as the bride and spirit as the groom
And life as a ceremony

"Take My Hand"

Take my hand, come walk with me along life's winding way
Take my hand, come stand with me, together we will say.
It's you that I have chosen. It's you with whom I'll stay.
It's you with whom I'll share my life as I want no other way.
I want you always by my side through laughter and through tears. The good, the bad, we'll share it all, through all the coming years.
Because I want this union, to continue to be blessed
I pray we both will care enough to always give our best
Then when our journey ends will find that we've come through it all still lovers, ever friends

Bible Scriptures

Matthew 19:4-6

He who has created them from the beginning made them male and female and said "for this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and shall cleave to his wife and the two shall become one flesh. Consequently they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate.

1 Corinthians 13 4-8

Love is patience, love is kind, and is not jealous, love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly, it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take in to account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth, bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails...

Phillippians 2:2-4

If therefore there is any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if there is any fellowship of the spirit, if any affection and compassion, make my joy complete by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose. Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind let each of you regard one another as more important than himself, do not merely look out for your own personally interest, but also for the interest of others. Have this attitude within yourself which was also in Christ Jesus.

Hosea 6:6

I do not desire your sacrifices, I want your love. I do not desire your gifts, I want you to get to know me.

Options to Personalize Your Ceremony

Unity Candle (located as VIII on outline)

You have a single candle with two taper candles. Typically the mother's are ushered forward and would light the taper candles and then be seated. The officiate makes a brief homily on the unity of two souls. All while the bride and groom light the single candle from the two taper candles.

Sand Ceremony (Located as VIII on outline)

You have an empty bottle or vase. The officiate speaks on your decision to take from the earth, from the very spot you stood on when two lives were joined to make one. The bride and groom then stoups, and fills their vessel.

Family Vows (after the ring vows on the outline)

(Repeat after Officiant)

I _____, choose you, _____, and _____, to be my family. I promise to honor and respect you and to provide for you to the best of my ability. I promise to make our home a haven, where trust, love, and laughter are abundant. I make these promises lovingly, and freely, and vow to honor them all the days of my life.
